

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs.

Internet infrastructure companies do not have consumers best interests at heart and are not economically competitive whatsoever.